

Episode Two (analysis) Transcript

Vikki: Okay, first on the list is group leader.
Delia: Do you think we really need a group leader? I don't; I think we can just decide things between ourselves.
Muzz: Yes. We're all adults, so we should be able to discuss things and sort them out.
Vikki: Okay. Next is, we need to organise the equipment.
Rob: I'll do that.
Shireen: So, why did you make such a fuss earlier then?
Vikki: Erm, is everybody happy to look at their own bits for the barriers, and we'll look at those next week?
Rob: Yeah.
Delia: If you want, I'll put that all together, and make handouts for the presentation?
Vikki: Yeah.
Muzz: I'll help you, Delia.
Vikki: And I'll take the notes from the meeting.
Muzz: Well, why don't we take it in turns? It's fairer that way, no? I'll do this week's.
Vikki: Okay, but you need to keep the notes brief. Sort of like action points; not an essay.
Muzz: How you mean action points?
Shireen: Just like a list of actions we've decided to do. Like Rob; plan equipment. That way we can't argue about anything.
Rob: That's if we all agree. Right; that's that sorted. It's taken us almost an hour.
Shireen: Yeah well, the ten minute coffee break didn't help, did it?
Delia: Come on: we've done well today. We've not got long left, so why don't we just finish by thinking about what we're actually going to do in the presentation?
Rob: Cool.
