

Shireen – Episode 1 video diary Transcript

My first impressions of the group is that, everyone seems to be okay, but I think we're gonna need a strong leader to make sure that everyone pulls their weight. We have got a hell of a lot of work to do, and we don't have much time to do it. There's really tight deadlines on this, and I'm not the kind of person that just leaves things to the last minute; I like to get it done on time.

A lot of the time, the group seems to think it's ok to just sit and chat. I suppose I'm just worried that some of them might let us down. Vikki seems alright, I think she's gonna work quite hard. But for some reason, she seems to want to challenge me quite a lot. I don't think she understands that all I'm trying to do it just push us forward and make sure we get everything done.

Erm...I just think we haven't got time for a lot of happy, kinda groupy kind of stuff. I think Delia appreciates that. She seems to be quite quiet, but I think she'll be good at presentations, and the guys seem to like her, which is good because someone's gotta keep Rob in check.

Rob...I just think Rob is a law unto himself. He turned up late today, and then he decided to discharge himself early, so it's obvious he couldn't give a toss about the project, which is nice. Well, actually it's not nice. It really frustrates me, because I'm 110% committed to this and it'd be nice if everybody appreciated that.

I think Muzz does. He's also pretty quiet, but I think he's just trying to grasp what we're doing at the minute and I'm pretty sure we're gonna have to carry him through, but at least he's trying.

I've led groups before you see, so I kinda know what it's like to make decisions and delegate tasks. Plus I've learnt it at work as well so I think we'll be ok if someone just makes some decisions and leads the group.
